LOCATED AT LAST

No Doubt About the Salem P. O. Site

It Will Go on Wilson Avenue and Thus Satisfy the Majority.

The telegrams received from Washington say the Salem post office is to be located on Wilson avenue. The language is somewhat ambiguous, but all agree that Wilson avenue is the place. This being the case Salem will have many reasons to rejoice.

First, we will all rejoice because Salem is to have a $100,000 post office building, regardless of its location. It's a good thing wherever it's built within the city.

Second, all must be pleased to have it located where it will not cause strife and contention between interested property owners, and between conflicting interests and sections of the city.

Furthermore, the location of the post office on Wilson avenue insures the immediate and permanent improvement of the most beautiful spot within the city. For fifty years this has been a wild common, a sink hole and at times a disgrace to the community.

The $3750 that the city will receive out of the transaction will be set aside as a Park fund to be used in beautifying the rest of the avenue. With the excellent care the federal government takes of all its grounds and property, this will settle the question of funds for the suitable care of the Park. No easier way to put the avenue in order has yet been devised. Up to date the city has not cared enough for Wilson avenue as a park to keep it up. But in future it seems to be provided for.

Furthermore, the selection of this site will not reduce the public revenues by taking forever from the tax rolls of the city, county and state, a valuable block of property.

The next step will be to transfer the property to Uncle Sam, when bids for plans will be received preparatory to letting a contract for construction.

Soldier Reception.

Last night the members of Salem Camp No. 118, P. J. W. W., and Silver Bell Circle No. 43, W. of W., tendered those members of the two bodies who were members of their order, and went to the Philippines, a reception.

It was well attended by members of both organizations and an enjoyable time was had. A good program was followed out, after which a fine lunch was served.

The guests of honor of the evening were Major Percy Willis, Captain Elmer O. Warlick and Lieutenant Chas. A. Murphy.

Nothing was left undone to impress the boys with a hearty welcome, and the evening was highly enjoyed by all.

Given Away.

One 16-20 Platinium given away every month. For further particulars inquire at The Elite Studio, Successor to Sperry the Artist. Don't forget that we make twenty-one pictures for 25 cents.

Fall goods are piling in on us, and we have to put in our big tables, consequently need the room badly. Have four second-hand bargains for men from $6 to $10 and a few other men's and women's wheels, new in Stearns and Tribunes, on which the cut will amount to about 20 per cent. Will list what's left in a day or two. Haven't time to do so now. If you want a snap come at once. No time to fool away. MISS STARR'S FUNERAL

The Departed Shown Every Attention and Mark of Respect.

The Funeral Services Conducted at the First Congregational Church Saturday Forenoon.

Governor Geer yesterday sent the following letter of condolence to the afflicted parents of his late stenographer:

"Mr. and Mrs. Frank Starr, Salem, Or.:—In this hour of your great sorrow I desire to express to you my sincere sympathy. I know by recent experience how meaningless are mere words when such a calamity invades one's household, but they are all we have to offer, save a reliance on the Heavenly Father who giveth and taketh away.

"During your daughter's employment in this office she had, by her strict attention to business, thorough reliability, pleasant manner and becoming modesty endeared herself to every official and employee in the state house, who had formed her acquaintance and in this sad event I feel the effect of a personal loss. I again express to you my deepest, sincerest sympathy.

(Signed) T. T. Geer."

The clerks in the departments have shown their admiration for the departed and their high appreciation for her character in several ways. A beautiful flower piece was sent to the family Friday and four employees from the departments who were particular friends watched with the remains last night. They were Harry Young, of the state department, Walter Lyon, of the governor's office, Miss Ackerman, of the department of instruction and Miss Geer, of the land department.

THE FUNERAL.
The First Congregational church was filled to the doors with friends of the deceased, among whom was Governor Geer, in whose office she did her last work, and the deep feeling of genuine sorrow was observable on all faces.

A telegram was present from the Grand Army, of which organization Frank Starr, the father of the deceased, was a member.

The pall bearers were Walter Lyon, Harry Young, Clarence Bishop, Paul Vandersol, W. L. Staley, Ernest Welch and the Misses Thea Dove, Laura Kirk, Freda Peterson, Ada Shaw, Nannie Malvin and Mabel Hewitt.

The floral offerings were many and beautiful, the casket being covered with flowers and the casket rail lanked with bouquets and set pieces.

Rev. P. S. Knight's address was a thoughtful and hopeful exposition of the teachings of the Bible assuring eternal life to the human soul, holding out the hope of a future reunion to the bereaved family.

Miss Helen Copeland feelingly sang "Oh, Rest in the Lord," from the Oratorio of Mendelssohn's Elijah.

A short service at the grave concluded the hours paid to that was mortal of a young lady who had won the high esteem of all with whom she was brought in contact.

Appointed Stenographer.
Miss Merle Davey has been appointed stenographer in the executive department, to succeed the late Miss Sarah Starr. She is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davey, of this city and has been employed for some time in the United States Internal Revenue collector's office. The appointment is universally approved and a more competent and popular lady would be hard to find.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wilson, of Portland, are in the city to visit a few days. Mr. Wilson was for many years manager of the Salem gasworks, and is now in the gas business at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Park are home from Alaska.

Work will begin next week on the new wharf at the O. R. & N. dock, this work being the next the carpenters have to attend to and they will probably have the entire job completed within a month.

Wm. Ullery this morning shipped a fine horse for Wm. Frazier to Portland. Mr. Frazier is buying some good cavalry horses for the Army in and about Salem.

Cor. Commercial and State streets, Salem, Ore.

JOURNAL X RAYS.

It's hard to tell some Lord men from Geer men just now.

When Governor Lord was elected it was a "new deal" and so is the Geer deal a "new deal." It seems there are "new deals" and new deals.

Talking about the regularity of the S. P. Co's station agent at Salem an old pioneer business man said:
"He is as regular as the clock."
"No," said Jim Brown, "he regulates the clock."

Discussing the "new deal" administration in Oregon's state house, a Salem Republican paper says:

"They promised the people that new faces should be seen in offices coming under their supervision. They pledged an economical business administration. Let us stop a moment to reflect and see if these promises have been fulfilled. Do you see new faces where you expected to find them—and where you do find new faces do you find men who supported the new deal, or men who have always lined up with the push?"

The Republicans are getting a new deal only they do not know it. Haven't the Hon. Benjamin Franklin Giltner, McBride's brother-in-law who has only been in the state house 18 years, been moved to a new desk and had his wages raised? As a stump speaker he is worth a million votes to the party. Of course, Mr. Giltner will hold his place only for life as a pensioner on the public. There are no young men in the Republican party who can copy names into a book. There are no returned volunteers who can write. Giltner was slated for postmaster at Salem but could not be spared at the state house.

RIVER ITEMS.

Willamette Is Full of Logs Owned By The Spauldings.

The late rains have somewhat tolled up the stage of the river, though not making much of a rise, it has been beneficial so far as checking the fall and has given steamboatmen a new hope for continued good business. The gauge at the O. R. & N. dock now stands at 2 feet above low water.

The river is full of logs, one of the largest drives ever drove on the Willamette is now taking place. It consists of over 10,000,000 feet, 3,000,000 feet of which are for the Salem mill.

The Salem cannery today shipped the first consignment of this year's product of cherries consisting of 20,000 pounds. The consignment was sent to Portland and they brought a fine price. The cannery people are highly gratified at the prospect of disposing of their entire product at remunerative figures.

Work will begin next week on the new wharf at the O. R. & N. dock, this work being the next the carpenters have to attend to and they will probably have the entire job completed within a month.
